

Language Teacher Workshop (no cost)

*“Flip your classroom and delve into Creative Commons”
with Annelise Borger*

“Flipped learning is the operating system that makes all other instructional models more viable and effective.” (Bergmann & St.Clair Smith, 2017)

Christchurch

Friday 2 March 2018
LC3, Riccarton Community Library

Hamilton

Monday 14 May 2018
location details tba

Palmerston North

Monday 11 June 2018
location details tba

Time

9am–4pm

Suitable for teachers of all languages in all sectors: primary-secondary as this workshop will be delivered in English. All levels of languages proficiency and teaching experience are welcome.

Tea, coffee and water provided. Please bring a packed lunch.

“If you want more time in class for students to interact in the target language, if you want more time to dig deeper and engage students with learning that is relevant to them, if you want to provide a differentiated approach that meets all students' needs, or if you want to develop better relationships with your students, Flipped Learning is for you.”

Annelise Borger,
Chinese Teacher at Middleton Grange School &
Flipped Learning Global Initiative International Faculty Member

To attend the workshop, please sign up here.

The ILEP National Language Advisers provide support for Learning Languages as part of the Ministry of Education-funded professional pathways for teachers. Find out more at www.ilep.ac.nz and on 